

Methodist Health Foundation and IU Health Methodist Hospital

Presents the first annual

Orthopedic Trauma Symposium

November 1, 2013

Keynote Speaker:

Andrew Burgess, MD is a Professor and Vice-Chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at The University of Texas Medical School at Houston, where he also serves as Chief of Orthopaedic Trauma. Dr. Burgess is also a Senior Affiliate Physician at Orlando Regional Medical Center. Dr. Burgess was previously Professor and Chief of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Maryland Shock Trauma Unit from 1982 to 2002. He is currently a Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery (part-time) at Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine.

Dr. Burgess is a nationally-recognized expert in orthopaedic trauma. He has been active in crash injury research and motor vehicle design. He was a Professor on the faculty of the Uniformed Services School of Medicine in Bethesda, MD, and educated the Orthopaedic Residents from both Bethesda and Walter Reed. He has been selected as a Landstuhl Scholar. Dr. Burgess is a founding member and previous President of the Orthopaedic Trauma Association (OTA). His affiliations include the Motor Vehicle Safety Research Advisory Committee and the American College of Surgeons, where he served on the Committee on Trauma. He has won teacher of the year awards at Johns Hopkins University, the University of Maryland and Orlando Regional Hospital.

Guest Faculty:

Michael Archdeacon, MD, MSE Director of the Division of Musculoskeletal Traumatology at the University of Cincinnati Medical Center

David Goodspeed, MD Associate Professor at the University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health

Marcus Sciadini, MD Associate Professor of Orthopedic Traumatology at the University of Maryland Medical System and the R. Adams Cowley Shock Trauma Center

Program information and registration go to: www.iuhealth.org/ots